Participant Code of Conduct

- Respect: Participants must respect the staff, the building, and each other. Disrespectful behavior - swearing, fighting, inappropriate behavior, horse play - will not be tolerated. If necessary, participants will be sent home.
- FUN! Participants will participate in programs and have FUN!
- Valuables: It is strongly recommended that participants leave all valuables, including cell phones, CD players, iPods, game systems, and money at home. BGCB will not be responsible for lost or stolen items.
- Food: Participants should not bring food, unless necessary for dietary reasons.
- Cell Phones: Cell phone use during Cyber Summit workshops will not be permitted. If you need to make an emergency phone call, a phone will be provided for use.
- Participants can only leave the building in the case of an emergency and only with the chaperone's notice.
